MISSION STATEMENT:

The mission of the Limerick Maine Volunteer Fire Department Auxiliary is to provide practical and financial support and assistance for the Limerick Maine Volunteer Fire Department; to serve the community through education and information regarding fire safety and fire services; and to strengthen cooperation and goodwill in the community on behalf of the Fire Department.

SUPPORT FOR THE LIMERICK VOLUNTEER FIRE DEPARTMENT:

The town of Limerick has a population of about 3000 and covers 28 square miles. The Limerick Volunteer Fire Department responded to approximately 500 calls in 2015 and is running at about the same volume for 2016.

Some of the ways the Auxiliary supports the fire department are:

- Purchasing materials for fire safety education
- Providing lunches to members during their day long trainings
- Providing support for community events
- Providing support during extended fire and EMS calls
