DEPARTMENT REPORTS:

- Cindy Smith – Library, Cindy wanted to remind people of the Author Talk and Book Signing Wednesday night February 8th at 6:30 with Kevin Mannix and Linda Rota. You can come to the library to make a Valentine Card on Saturday, Feb. 11th between 9am and 1pm, Monday the 13th from 1pm to 5pm and Tuesday the 14th from 9am to 5:30pm.
- Ron Phinney – Code Enforcement Office, Januarys a slow month, code issued one (1) building permit and one (1) renewal. The Office is still working on the Street Sign issue. They are also working on an issue of a shed that was built to close to a cemetery. This was done before the office changed the requirement of issuing building permits for all sheds.

SCHEDULED SPEAKERS:

- Denise Benton – Denise wants the town to address the harassment coming from Mr. Mclean, she would like them to stop letting him use the towns resources to harass people, wasting the town and tax payers money.
- Because of the article in the Shopping Guide, Ms. Benton starting investigating the assessing web-site of O'Donnell's and found many errors, she spoke with the assessing secretary here at the office and with Mr. O'Donnell and she had many questions as to how and why our town's assessing got so messed up.

- Ms. Benton inquired as to whether or not the town was going to have an informational meeting for the town's voters, to show them what repairs will be done at the Brick Town Hall that they will be asked to vote to appropriate funds for at the Annual Vote in March. (To hear complete discussion please refer to meeting recording.)

OLD BUSINESS:

- Selectmen Medici presented a draft of a Purchase and Bid policy that he found in the computer. He proposes that the town take a look at the draft and adjust it for our purposes in order to better control how the town is spending their money. A workshop will be scheduled with department heads to discuss this issue.

NEW BUSINESS:

- Motion Made and Seconded to approve two (2) abatements, #3-17 and 4-17. Abatement 5-17 was tabled pending a meeting with the Assessing Company. All were in favor.
